

BUILD YOUR CAREER WITH OXFORD

Oxford Properties Group is a growing, global platform for real estate investment. To strengthen our ties to markets outside North America, we recently opened a London office and are currently looking to employ talented people who share our commitment to performance and our passion for creating investment opportunities.

Better
opportunity.
Better
understanding.
Better people.

WHAT OXFORD HAS TO OFFER

Oxford enjoys a fifty-year track record of success in North America, and now has a mandate to grow aggressively in new markets. We are looking for people who can help us reach this goal. Our culture is dynamic and entrepreneurial; you'll be part of a team that is focused on winning. Oxford has the talent and the resources to do remarkable things – this is your chance to join us.

A WORLD OF OPPORTUNITY

Based in Toronto, Canada, Oxford Properties Group manages a $15 billion global real estate portfolio. As an owner, developer, investor and manager, Oxford leverages its real estate and financial expertise, its capacity for seamless execution and its secure access to capital to create value and opportunity – for its investors, partners and employees.

A MANDATE TO GROW

Oxford's scope is global, our outlook is entrepreneurial, and our approach is disciplined and rigorous. Our relationship with OMERS, one of Canada's largest pension plans, gives Oxford access to capital and a mandate to double our assets under management by 2010.

DISCOVER A WORLD OF OPPORTUNITY

Oxford provides its employees with remarkable opportunities for developing their skills and building their careers. We also offer a competitive compensation and benefits package. To find out how you can be part of the Oxford team, contact our London office at: +44 2078228300

OXFORD INVESTS IN REAL ESTATE

Acting independently or with like-minded partners, Oxford seeks to identify asset-level and entity-level investment opportunities, where our resources and experience and our commitment to active management will enable us to create value and outperform the market – a goal we achieve consistently.

GLOBAL PRINCIPAL INVESTMENT

The investment group identifies and acts on global investment opportunities, drawing on Oxford's expertise in real estate and investment management to build relationships with compatible investors and operating partners. Together, we work on opportunities where proactive management and informed decision-making can generate significant value.

GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT

Drawing on our experience as a real estate developer and our network of international partners, Oxford transforms insights into investment opportunities. Projects like London's Watermark Place demonstrate our talent for identifying market needs, our capacity to assemble financing or completely underwrite a project, and our ability to build teams and manage large-scale projects.

GLOBAL ASSET MANAGEMENT

Oxford's global asset management team looks at the world from an investor's perspective to identify opportunities for creating value at both an asset and a portfolio level. A broad understanding of real estate fundamentals and their impact on asset values enables us to realize our strategic investment goals and those of our partners.
